

National Society
Women Descendants of the Ancient & Honorable Artillery
LIFE MEMBERSHIP
APPLICATION

A person may become a Life Member and shall not be subject to payment of further national or state dues upon payment of two-hundred dollars ($200.00). One half of the amount shall be paid to the Court in which she holds membership, and one half shall be retained by the National Society, to constitute a permanent fund to remain forever in the Society, only the income of which may be expended. If the Life Member is transferred to another Court her fee shall be transferred with her. If Life Member dies, the Court shall retain the court's portion of the Life Membership fee. A Court Life Member may be subject to court dues.
